

EDITOR'S WORDS BY
GLORIA JEAN WOODARD

GOD'S RIGHT TIMING!

Well I really do praise God for all He's done in my life and what He's still continuing to do.

So glad God knows the right timing for everything in life. Some desire to come to Christ, lose weight, change jobs, or even move to another location. God knows the right timing to come up higher in your maturity so change can come. The Holy Spirit urges us to take note and be a doer of The Word.

Our trial may be an unwanted circumstance, a sickness, a death that will cause us to turn from and turn to God.

He will draw you to Him in the most gentlest way. You might begin to read the Word more. You might begin searching for new ways to take care of you health. You might begin thirsting for more of God's Spirit. Well He's working from the inside out. He's preparing the temple to receive more of Him. And He will not just do a temporary change, but an eternal change. After you get a taste of Jesus, you will never be the same.

God began to draw me closer to Him through my mother's illness. I know He could have done it in another way. However, shared love for mom occupied my mind and spirit and drove me closer to God. I read! I searched! I went! I took mom with me! I interceded! I learned scriptures! I fasted! He taught me so much in that time. I never gave up hope! I never gave up on God! It was a preparing time of learning scriptures, learning about myself, and learning what Jesus did in His Word; His Faithfulness; His Compassion. His Loving-kindness. There are always lessons to learn in the timing of God. Keep a journal so you won't forget the small things. It's a season we go through, where something has to be shed off to produce fresh fruit. It's a time of maturing.

We had been trying to get my dad to stop smoking until a doctor said he had cancer. This is one of those unwanted circumstances. In those times, we can still be kept by the Master.

Know that God lives eternally within. That's why the Word of God is so important! Important for life! As I said earlier, the right time — Elijah's became depressed after Jezebel threatened him. He came to God wanting to die. He had a mountaintop experience, but now he's in the valley of depression. Now is the time to take refuge and rest by the brook, to get ready for the journey of a new assignment (1Kings 17). God's timing brought Him through.

Nicodemus came to Christ by night, to whom he thought was a great Teacher come from God doing miracles. However, God's timing brought about his understanding of Truth—a new birth—spiritual (Jh.3).

Have you ever just gone through the motions, pretending that you can do it without God? Well I knew I couldn't! Just like Elijah and Nicodemus. If you read your bible, you would find yourself there, your circumstance there or even your answer there.

Don't give up on God's right timing. God Bless!

Good Morning Ladies and Gentlemen

Ps.115:12-14 The Lord hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron. He will bless them that fear the Lord, both small and great. The Lord shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

God will bless you and not only you but your children will be blessed.

He will increase you:

1. Spiritually,
2. Physically,
3. Financially and you will walk in supernatural increase in Jesus' Name.

Read Deut. 28. God will bless you mightily if you keep His commandments. When you keep the commandments of God, you are walking out obedience in Jesus. This chapter let's us know how to be blessed and how God will deal with our enemies by allowing them to come to us one way but we will see them leave seven ways. And everything about us will be blessed, even those that are connected to us. We will be blessed going and coming. Everything we touch will be blessed in Jesus Name.

But as we all know there is a flip side to everything. If we don't keep the commandments of God, we will be cursed and all that we possess will be cursed. The Lord our God will turn us over to our enemies and they will do what they will with us.

So, let's be guilty of walking out obedience because obedience is the strategy for increase and will cause us to walk out supernatural increase in our lives and our children will receive what we have in Jesus' Name.

I ask you this question, do you stand to be blessed in Jesus Name?

Ps.37:19, They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

Remember in Psalms 37:19 tells us not to worry because the righteous will have more than enough in the time of Famine. There is so much Word that will assure us that we are blessed abundantly if we just seek after righteousness in Jesus' Name. Be Blessed!

THE MINISTRY OF GENEROSITY

2Corinthians 9:6-12, Paul is writing to the Corinthians. He is also reminding us that if you give sparingly, you reap sparingly. One's return is determined by his investment. There is to be a willing heart and a sincere desire on the part of whoever is giving and giving only with a cheerful (meaning hilarious) heart.

After giving, you then give God the ability to bless hilariously and abundantly, restoring, and even to making all grace abound to you. So it's really up to us first, to give up what we want to receive. God in turn, gives us the option to hold on or let go! He blesses us to bless somebody else. You've got to see this as a kingdom assignment where God is placed first, because you give as unto the Lord, and we will always have all sufficiency; enough in all things, including mental, physical, emotional, economical, and spiritual compensation. However, it does not mean that every believer who gives regularly will be wealthy but you will have all sufficiency, that, that you need. The righteous acts that are readily given and supplied to others have an eternal value. You are not to lay up (store up) treasures (riches) on earth... but lay up treasures (riches) in heaven...For where your treasures (riches) are, there will your heart be also (Matt.6:19-21).

"A Kingdom Assignment placed upon us to have all Sufficiency!"

No matter how far you go, the promises of God are available to those who believe by faith and His righteousness is forever. As you are giving unto the Lord, the "One" who has everything, the "One" who made everything, the "One" who can make something out of nothing, the "One" who owns the cattle on a thousand hills, He supplies seed to the

PRAYER

Lord, my efforts are futile, I need Your help. My ears are listening.

Out of my mouth comes life. My soul prospers because of You Lord. Your Word says "Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth."

So as I attend to Your Word and incline my ears to your sayings; I let them not depart from my eyes. I keep them in the midst of my heart. For they are life unto me as I find them and health to all my flesh. I keep my heart with all diligence for out of it are the issues of life.

All these blessings shall come on me and overtake me. I'm blessed in the city, blessed in the field, blessed in the fruit of my body, and the fruit of my ground; blessed shall be my basket and my store. I'm blessed coming in and going out.

Thank You Lord for commanding the blessings upon my storehouses and all that I set my hand unto, and blessing me in the land which You Lord, my God give me. I thank You for establishing me a holy person unto Yourself. You Lord shall make me plenteous in goods. You shall make me the head and not the tail; above and not beneath.

And it shall come to pass that before I call, You will answer and while I speak You hear. For where the word of a kings is, there is power. So as I release my Words of faith, I believe I receive! In Jesus' Name ! Amen ! And Thank You Lord!

CON'T: THE MINISTRY OF GENEROSITY

Sower, this is both natural and spiritual. You are ministering unto the Lord and increase comes through your seed sown.

You've got to remember that your seed needs to be planted, sown on good ground, so it can bring forth good harvest, because you can loose your seed by planting it on ground that has stumbling blocks, deceitfulness, un fruitfulness; ground God is not in, that is, if you want to see a return.

That's why when the master came back looking for the servants with the talents, the one with the one talent buried his talent—did not receive more. The master didn't receive any interest, no gain, no profit, no harvest, no abundance from what he had given to the one. Matt.25:29 says, "For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath." The master called him unprofitable! God desires for us to be fruitful and profitable. He instituted giving when He gave Adam and Eve a way of escaped out of the Garden of Eden and supplied atonement for them, He could have killed them but He didn't. He instituted giving when He gave the Israelites a way of escape out of Egypt and every time supplied every need. He instituted giving to us by giving us a way of escape through His only begotten Son, Jesus, as a ransom for our sins. What a generous God we serve. We cannot out beat His giving.

God Instituted Giving When...

To end it all, it's another domino effect: God is glorified because out of the riches of God's grace, the need is supplied to the believer, the believer out of gratitude shares out of their abundance with others, and in turn we direct our expression of thanksgiving back to God, where God hilariously and abundantly keeps on giving. And there is no end! As we read about Paul, this "ministry" or "office of service", can only be done from an expression of thanksgiving and love for what God has done! So having the Jews give thanks to God for love shown by Gentiles is Paul's greatest purpose in all this, even above helping the poor. Our ministry should be of the same love and thanksgiving for what God has done for us!

God Bless ! July 13, 2009

"THE TAXI RIDE"

I arrived at the address where someone had requested a taxi. I honked but no one came out. I honked again, nothing. So I walked to the door and knocked. 'Just a minute', answered a frail, elderly voice. I could hear something being dragged across the floor.

After a long pause, the door opened. A small woman in her 90's stood before me. She was wearing a print dress and a pillbox hat with a veil pinned on it, like somebody out of a 1940s movie.

By her side was a small nylon suitcase. The apartment looked as if no one had lived in it for years. All the furniture was covered with sheets.

There were no clocks on the walls, no knickknacks or utensils on the counters. In the corner was a cardboard box filled with photos and glassware.

'Would you carry my bag out to the car?' she said. I took the suitcase to the cab, and then returned to assist the woman.

She took my arm and we walked slowly toward the curb.

She kept thanking me for my kindness. 'It's nothing', I told her.. 'I just try to treat my passengers the way I would want my mother treated'..

'Oh, you're such a good boy', she said. When we got in the cab, she gave me an address, and then asked, 'Could you drive through downtown?'

'It's not the shortest way,' I answered quickly.

'Oh, I don't mind,' she said. 'I'm in no hurry. I'm on my way to a hospice'.

I looked in the rear-view mirror. Her eyes were glistening. 'I don't have any family left,' she continued. 'The doctor says I don't have very long.' I quietly reached over and shut off the meter.

'What route would you like me to take?' I asked.

For the next two hours, we drove through the city. She showed me the building where she had once worked as an elevator operator.

We drove through the neighborhood where she and her husband had lived when they were newlyweds. She had me pull up in front of a furniture warehouse that had once been a ballroom where she had gone dancing as a girl.

Sometimes she'd ask me to slow in front of a particular building or corner and would sit staring into the darkness, saying nothing.

As the first hint of sun was creasing the horizon, she suddenly said, 'I'm tired. Let's go now'. We drove in silence to the address she had given me. It was a low building, like a small convalescent home, with a driveway that passed under a portico.

Two orderlies came out to the cab as soon as we pulled up. They were solicitous and intent, watching her every move. They must have been expecting her.

I opened the trunk and took the small suitcase to the door. The woman was already seated in a wheelchair.

'How much do I owe you?' she asked, reaching into her purse. 'Nothing,' I said. 'You have to make a living,' she answered. 'There are other passengers,' I responded. Almost without thinking, I bent and gave her a hug. She held onto me tightly. 'You gave an old woman a little moment of joy,' she said. 'Thank you.'

I squeezed her hand, and then walked into the dim morning light. Behind me, a door shut. It was the sound of the closing of a life.

I didn't pick up any more passengers that shift. I drove aimlessly lost in thought. For the rest of that day, I could hardly talk. What if that woman had gotten an angry driver, or one who was impatient to end his shift?

What if I had refused to take the run, or had honked once, then driven away? On a quick review, I don't think that I have done anything more important in my life.

We're conditioned to think that our lives revolve around great moments. But great moments often catch us unaware-beautifully wrapped in what others may consider a small one.

PEOPLE MAY NOT REMEMBER EXACTLY WHAT YOU DID, OR WHAT YOU SAID, BUT THEY WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER HOW YOU MADE THEM FEEL.

Thank you, my friend...

POWER IN THE WORD MINISTRY

For the Word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
