Mary Did You Know?

I love that song, "Mary Did you Know." They are important words for parents today. As you put your name in the blank, you're saying, ___ did you know that your child will or would...? No we didn't, but we look for great things to come forth from our unborn child or child that's already here. The same goes for God. He looks for great things to come forth from us, His children. The most important thing He looks for is that we will accept His Son Jesus and be born-again; not into your mother's womb a second time, but of water and of the Spirit. Wow!

We can say Mary didn't know what Jesus would have to go through, and we certainly don't know what ours will do, only God does!

Through the birth of this One child—Jesus, He came to make things new; He walked on water; saved our sons and daughters and delivered His mother Mary! He gave sight to the blind, the deaf heard, the dumb spoke, men gave praises to Him! He calmed the storm with His hand, walked where angels trod; He's Lord of all Creation; heaven's Perfect Lamb; and one day rule the nations! No, that would have been too much for Mary to take in all at once.

We are so glad Jesus took away the sins of the world for us, and for our unborn children to come; and that they will have a chance to accept what Jesus has done for them and be forgiven — Jesus paved the way for a better life to come. Hallelujah!

God Bless!

Verifying Jesus!

Luke 2:21 "And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb."

Like so many mothers, their friends and relatives come up with naming the newborn baby, well, the Jewish families went through several ceremonies in Jesus' time to obey the Law as they officially named their child. Luke 2:21 allows us to view the obedience of Mary and Joseph. After eight days of Mary giving birth, she fulfilled the biblical requirements of having Jesus circumcised (Jewish males), as required by law. This was the sign and seal of the covenant God made with Abraham and it symbolized the Jews belonged to God as His covenant people; separating them from the Gentiles.

This same verse also lets us know who named the child. The angel was only the messenger to Mary. He comes from the presence of God who is the Father; The Father has given Jesus a name above any name. There may be many children named 'Jesus' but there are none like this one! The angel had come to Mary before she had even conceived the child in her womb. Has anyone had premonitions of someone's pregnancy before they were with child? Well, God

TWAS THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS — JESUS BIRTH

By Rock Griffis

It was the night before Christmas and all thru the land People were traveling to their home land.

The Inns were full of travelers you know And a young couple was searching for someplace to go.

She was heavy with child and found permission to rest in a small stable, not considered the best.

It had a manger and hay, not much more, Just a few animals and a dirt floor.

In the same country abiding in the field Shepherds were tending their sheep as they will.

The stars up above were shining up high,
One in particular was lighting the sky.

All of a sudden there appeared in the sky An angel of God with a message from high.

The angel announced don't be afraid I bring you good tidings

For all people today.

A Saviour is born to you this day Which is Christ the Lord, he had to say.

In the city of David wrapped in old clothes lying in manger is the sign you should know.

And all of a sudden there was singing in the air a multitude of angels singing with care.

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men.

And when they were gone, the shepherds agreed that they would travel to Bethlehem immediately.

When they arrived they found the sign.
Mary, Joseph and the babe.

He was lying in the manger, just as the angel proclaimed.

They told the parents that they were told of this Holy child that she now holds.

Mary was thinking of the things that they said then they returned and bowed their heads

They praised and prayed and glorified him and for all the things the angel had said

Eight days later when it was time
The small child JESUS was named.

Remember the star that lighted the sky that special night, the angels came by .

From even that time,
from really afar, there had been three kings following that star.

It had taken much time to follow the star but they rejoiced with great joy when they saw what they saw.

A mother named Mary with a child that they saw they fell to the floor and worshipped with awe.

They brought him gifts of

Myrrh, frankincense and gold very pricey items I am told.

Over two thousand years have passed since then When Jesus was a child born not of sin.

He came and he lived and died for us God almighty really loves us.

He will be back very soon indeed
To gather his bride for a wedding feast.

Christmas will continue forever indeed So give your gifts in His memory.

Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night may you're life be filled with His joy and His light.

TWAS THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS — JESUS CAME

written by Unknown Author

'Twas the night before Jesus came and all through the house
Not a creature was praying, not one in the house.

Their Bibles were lain on the shelf without care In hopes that Jesus would not come there.

The children were dressing to crawl into bed.
Not once ever kneeling or bowing a head.

And Mom in her rocker with baby on her lap Was watching the Late Show while I took a nap.
When out of the East there arose such a clatter.

I sprang to my feet to see what was the matter.

Away to the window I flew like a flash, Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash!

When what to my wondering eyes should appear

But angels proclaiming that Jesus was here.
With a light like the sun sending forth a bright ray

I knew in a moment
this must be THE DAY!
The light of His face made me cover my head

It was Jesus! returning just like He had said.

And though I possessed worldly wisdom and wealth, I cried when I saw Him in spite of myself.

In the Book of Life which He held in His hand
Was written the name of every saved man.

He spoke not a word as He searched for my name;
When He said "it's not here" my head hung in shame.

The people whose names had been written with love
He gathered to take to His Father above.

With those who were ready He rose without a sound.

While all the rest were left standing around.

I fell to my knees, but it was too late;
I had waited too long and thus sealed my fate.

I stood and I cried as they rose out of sight; Oh, if only I had been ready tonight.

In the words of this poem the meaning is clear;

The coming of Jesus is drawing near.

There's only one life and when comes the last call

We'll find that the Bible was true after all!

Con't Verifying Jesus

is the only One who knows it all and can reveal it by His Spirit. He knows us before and while we are in our mother's womb! Mary's Son is named JESUS before He was in the womb! This is verified in Luke 1:31—"Behold you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call His name Jesus." JESUS means "Jehovah is Salvation!" Therefore, to verify what the angel had told Mary, Jesus went through the ceremony of circumcision on the eighth day and then was officially given His name.

The next ceremony was for Mary: the 40 days purification (birth of a son); or the 80 days purification (if a daughter) to be declared clean (Lev.12) before she could even enter into the Temple to offer her offering to God.

This makes it possible for Mary to bring Jesus into the Temple to present Him to the Lord. This last ceremony would be redemption of the firstborn, where the parents acknowledge that the child belonged to God. The first-born son was presented to God one month after birth.
This ceremony depicted buying back (re-deeming) the child from God through the offering they brought.

Thus, upon entering the Temple, Mary and Joseph met a man name Simeon.
It's all in God's plan and timing that after the birth of Jesus, Simeon would be in the right place at the right time to see the long awaited Messiah, whom the Holy Spirit had revealed to him a while back, that he would see before he died. He took Jesus in his arms praising God for God had kept His promise.
Simeon then says that he could now die content for he had seen the Promised Savior. He verified Jesus—The coming Savior of the world!

Also in their company to verify the long awaited Savior was Anna, a prophetess who also began thanking God and telling everyone around about the long awaited Messiah. There was no doubting as to who Jesus was, even as a baby, so why are there so many who doubt Him now? God knew the plight of His first-born Son; His only begotten Son! And He had those to welcome His Son into this world. God Bless!

SICK MAN MAKES COMPLETE TURNAROUND AFTER REUNION WITH PET DOG

James Wathen, a 73-year-old man from Kentucky, was hospitalized more than a month ago at Baptist Health Corbin. He stopped eating and his condition worsened. He told a care worker that he missed his one-eyed Chihuahua named Bubba, who was turned over to the Knox-Whitley Animal Shelter when James was hospitalized.

James was lonely and heartbroken, so the nurses at the hospital arranged for Bubba to visit even if it was against hospital rules, Today reports. To their surprise, Bubba has also fallen ill.

Mary-Ann Smythe, president of the animal shelter, said that Bubba stopped eating.

"The dog didn't know where James was and James didn't know where the dog was and believe it or not, they both stopped eating at about the same time."

According to The Huffington Post, Bubba was brought to his owner, and the two were reunited at last. Smyth said that as soon as they were 20 steps away from James, Bubba's eyes brightened and his head went up. She said that the same happened to James during his 30-minute reunion with his pet.

"They didn't think James was going to make it. I was 10 feet from his bed and you could barely understand him because he was so hard to hear. The nurse had to lean up right against his face to hear what he was saying."

Bubba visited James again on Tuesday. James made a complete turnaround and started eating and speaking. Medical staff said that he didn't look like the same guy that they cared for before his reunion with Bubba. Smyth said that Bubba started eating as well.

James and Bubba's story just goes to show that pets can provide a healing power to their owners. In another Inquisitr article, a 76-year-old woman from Florida was kept alive by her two dogs, Higgins and Dodger. Judy fell in her kitchen, and wasn't found until two days later. Her two dogs stayed by her side and kept her warm throughout her ordeal.

Smythe hopes that James' relationship with Bubba will encourage others to adopt pets from shelters, and realize that pets are not property.

7 WAYS TO KEEP YOUR MIND SHARP

Beat Brain Fog as You Age—We all have those moments when we forget where we put our glasses, blank on a friend's name, or discover at the supermarket that we've left the shopping list at home. Such occasional lapses are common, especially once we hit our forties. And while it may be alarming to have a "senior moment" now and then, the good news is that we are not destined to increased memory gaps as we age. Research shows that by keeping your brain healthy with the right diet, and exercising it to keep cognitive function strong, you can boost memory and brainpower.

1. Have fish once a week—People who eat fish once a week have a 60% lower risk of developing Alzheimer's disease. The reason is DHA, a type of omega-3 fatty acid found in large quantities in the brain and in cold water species of fish, such as salmon, tuna, and cod.
2. Take a daily brain break—In fact, the brain "prefers" novelty and unexpected events. When we mentally challenge ourselves on a regular basis, we can maintain good intellectual potential as well as reduce our risk for age-related memory loss. Challenge yourself with our brain games.
3. Keep family meetings—When you interact with 4. Maximize your workouts—Cardiovascular activity pumps more oxygen-rich blood to the brain, which is like giving a car a shot of gasoline. With that, blood comes nutrients such as glucose, which fuels every cell in the brain. Daily workouts also have long-term benefits. Cardio exercise strengthens blood vessels and helps prevent illnesses that impair cognitive function, like stroke.
5. Keep your happy thoughts—Think about a time in your life when you were utterly happy. Rehearse the scene as though you were reliving it, complete with the dialogue, sights, smells, and feelings. "The memory itself will spark brain changes that can help turn your mood—and your long term health.
6. Don't sweat what you forget—A fit brain will efficiently screen out and discard worthless or meaningless data so it can remember what's important.
7. Take a nap—Go ahead, doze off during your lunch break: Napping for as little as 6 minutes can improve your memory.

other people, it's likely that structures in the frontal lobe that are responsible for 'executive functions'—like planning, decision making, and response control—get fired up. Regular socializing also keeps your brain sharp by reducing cortisol, the destructive stress hormone.
