POWER IN THE WORD MINISTRY

EDITOR'S WORDS BY GLORIA JEAN WOODARD

THERE IS A PROCESS

I heard the phrase the other day: P.U.S.H.—Pray Until Something Happens. It's catchy, yet very pertinent to do. Example: You don't see it happening, that thing you're praying for! It hasn't manifested yet! And, you're about ready to throw in the towel!

Do you know what a mother does in order to see the manifestation of the baby to be born? She goes into labor. She's told to push at a certain time. She has to take time to breathe, hold on, and wait during the crowning of the baby's head, during the pain of the baby coming through the birth canal. I'm talking about the process of that, that you're been praying for, looking for, longing for!

A seed has been planted in you and it shall come forth at its appointed time, but there's a process! At times the process is not easy because of past experiences, of your thinking.

Going back to pregnancies, some are fine in the beginning and hard toward the end. Some are hard at the beginning and still hard toward the end. The baby moves all kind of ways inside. The body has to adjust to this new life within. And then, there are situations outside of your control to contend with. However, all in all, the process of pregnancy has begun and the process is inevitable for new birth.

The process of the Word being planted within you takes time to grow, takes time to develop, and manifest in the heart. Trials tend to bring that Word up at the right time { In thee, O Lord do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed, deliver me... Ps.31:1 }. Praise will bring that Word up at the right time { I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth Ps.34:1 }. Thanks will bring that Word up at the right time { O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever Ps.107:1 }. With plenty of watering—studying, praying, and confessing will determine the maturity of growth and the maturity of stability.

When the labor pains of the mother come, it's saying, the baby is coming! When labor pains of hurt, disappointment, health reasons, or loss of any kind comes, it's saying that faith can arise also, because of the Word that has been planted and now connects with the Spirit of God manifest answers to the prayer prayed.

Now, I'm praying harder, I'm praying more, I'm looking for the manifestation of the Word sent

THIS TOO SHALL PASS

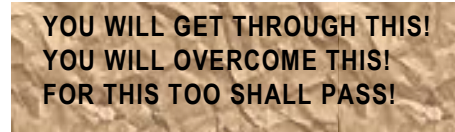

There are battles going on in the heavenlies and some of you may be going through some fierce battles and some may be going through some small attacks. Attacks on your reputation; attacks in your body; attacks on your job; attacks in your marriage. Keep your head up! This is not the end! There is a through on the other side. You might be saying, I don't need this! This is too much! I'm ready to give up! You see the enemy wants you to give up! However, God wants you to depend on Him! Rest assured, "This Too Shall

Pass!"

As stated earlier, there is a battle going on in the heavenlies. You might be going through things that have challenged you in your faith, circumstances of debt; circumstances of sickness; one thing happening on top of the other which lead to worry; which lead to giving up. Is this stealing your peace? Are you looking at the situation more than looking to God? Remember. You are going to be tested. You will come to recognize that you can't fight any battle along. You need God's Word and His Spirit. Repent of any sin, your confess your faith; pray and lean not to your own understanding. Most of all praise your awesome God before you see the battle won! Let the peace of God surpass all your understanding.

God gives promises and He keeps His Promise. His Word says: "I'll give you perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Me" (Is.26:3). You are an Overcomer, you overcome the world, the flesh and the devil "by the blood of the lamb and by the word of your testimony" (Rev.12:11). "No weapon formed against you shall prosper; and every tongue that rise against you, you shall condemn (show to be in the wrong)" (Is.54:17); You shall "walk through the valley of the shadow of death and will not fear cause He is with you; His rod and staff comforts you" (Ps.23:4). It's very important to remember the key words:

walk through—shadow—fear not

YOU'RE WALKING THROUGH YOUR TEST TO GIVE TESTIMONY !

—with you—rod—staff—comfort!

A shadow may be a threat, but it can't touch you. It says I walk through!!! I'm not staying in it. I will not fear! He's with me! His rod(to protect you) and His staff

(to guide you) will comfort you.

Whatever you're walking through, you will prevail and not be blindsided by the distractions. Don't be disappointed! You're made of good stuff and it's all by your Father! Ask God for the wisdom you need during the test.

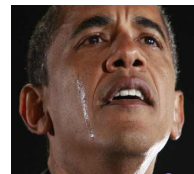

When you establish the Word of Faith in your mouth, your spirit is quickened, comes alive, manifest. This is where that Word you have quoted so many times begins to kick in because Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God. It takes you from worry to trust! From settling to attacking the enemy! From being unpleasant to being joyous!

This is the time to stand up and say enough is enough, instead of a wait and see game; instead of being on the defense, be on the offense and come against the enemy that's disturbing you, with praise! Keep Praise with Thanksgiving, when you don't feel like praising. Forgive when you don't feel like forgiving. It will take an effort from you. If you don't start nothing, it won't be nothing! Keep your light lit; your fire for Jesus going! The Holy Spirit comes alive with a spark of faith from you to trust Him. Have you ever gotten mad at the devil or do you just let him ride you? Open your mouth and put a stop to him, with faith filled Words, in the Name of Jesus, for THIS TOO SHALL PASS!

God Bless!

PRAYER:

Thank you Father for being Lord and Savior in my life. Forgive me of my sins and renew a right spirit in me. Fill me O Lord!

Even though the pressure may overwhelm me at times, I'm still standing; I'm still listening for Your voice; for those words that give me peace; for You precise answer.

My life is in Your hands, in Your Will, and in Your plan! I try to hold back the tears, but still they come. I want to be strong but I know that when I'm weak You are strong for me. You are my leaning post; my strong tower; my rock I can stand on. Thank You Lord. Thank You for Your whisper, for Your healing touch, for Your way of escape, for the comfort even in the tears. I realize You're fighting this battle for me; You're holding back the terror of the enemy; and You're keeping me alive! Hallelujah!

When I look back over my life, and where it could have went, I truly know, You are the One who have kept me thus far; the One that's showed me gentleness; the One that's provided for my every need; the One that truly loved me in my mess, in spite of.... Thank You Lord! You have opened my eyes to the enemy and I know his tactics. You've shown me that he prowls to get me off balance. So a Praise comes out of my mouth, dear God. As I seek You with my whole heart, take out those things that offend You, make me aware of those things that keep tripping me up, for Your Ways are higher than mine. Give me Holy Ghost Power to stand and not faint that I might increase in strength.

Thank You Father in Jesus' Name! Amen! Amen! Amen!

Con't: There Is A Process

forth from my lips, from my heart; that God anointed Word.

In the bible Daniel prayed for 21 days. He didn't just pray; he mourned, he fasted. It didn't look like anything was happening. But there was a war going on in the heavenlies. The answer had not come. He was still waiting. Talking about a Process!

People of God, you might be under attack in your marriage, on your job, in your body, in your finances. Just rest assured, the answer is on the way. In the 10th chapter of Daniel, Daniel prayed; Prayed for 21 days (3weeks). What Daniel didn't know was that his prayer was answered on the first day he prayed {Dan.10:12}. However, because of principalities and powers that didn't want the answer manifested; didn't want the blessing to come forth; didn't want the break-through to show up, blocked the avenue and obstructed the way. As we look at

"HALLELUJAH FOR THE PROCESS !
IT ACHIEVED THE ANSWER !"

the process for the Israelites what was an 11 day trip, took 40 years. They themselves blocked the way through grumbling and complaining, and unbelief. They went through a terrible process and did not receive the promise. Yet for Daniel, he did all he knew to do and yet it still took 21 days {Dan.10:13}for the answer to come. A Process!

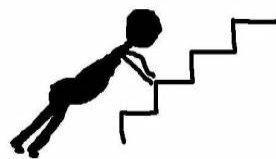

Don't leave your post of prayer, praise, and thanksgiving. There is a process. There is a need to push through with fervent prayer. There is a need to push through with a sacrifice of praise. And there is a need to push through in a "know I got it" Thanksgiving! In this process, you might have sleepless nights, tears shed, scars on your knees from being on them so much, forgiving people that might turn their backs on you. However, at the end of the process, you will have weathered the storm, you will have matured a little more, you will truly know who God is and that He is a God of His Word!

Your P.U.S.H. was not for nothing. You Prayed Until Something Happened! You labored with prayer, praise, and thanksgiving. Your process is in God's hand. And you'll be glad to know, the process was well worth it. It achieved the answer!

God Bless!

BEFORE GETTING TO THE TOP THERE IS A PROCESS

POWER IN THE WORD

For the Word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Hebrews 4:12
