EDITOR'S WORDS BY GLORIA JEAN WOODARD

I continue to ask those that desire to place encouraging articles or testimonials in the PITWM Newsletter, please contact me through "contact me" or email directly to gwoodard001@comcast.net (1 page please). I know others that may be going through some circumstances would certainly be refreshed with your Word from the Lord! That has been my desire to allow others to use their God-given talent and anointing for God's glory. Don't let your purpose fall by the wayside, but allow God's Word to grow deep into the good soil of others. I need you to spread this Good News to others and trust God to be in charge of the Word you give forth because it will bring joy and release to your heart. This year will be a most significant year for many, especially so, when God is in it!

A LETTER OF PRAISE

I thought that this would be a good place for this letter in the Newsletter; for recognition of a wonderful and fulfilling experience as I attended a church in the city of Oklahoma.

Dear Praise Assembly,

I overcome the world, the flesh and the devil by the Word of my testimony and the blood of the Lamb. I give praise to God and give thanks to Praise Assembly for the Women's Conference each year I attend. You treat us so special.

I thank Mother Helen for opening up her home to me. She is an encourager, a motivator, and very special woman of God. Thanks to Elsie for encouraging me to write this letter because I didn't take the time. Thanks again! Each year there is a change in the atmosphere and I'm touched and made whole there. I come one way, but I leave in a much better way.

My first year changed me because I went to the Next Level in my life. My second year, I went through the door and I literally felt something happen in the spirit. This was my third year (2005), "I Shall Arise."

I heard the testimony of the young man that

GOD'S PLAN OF SALVATION

PROBLEM: Human Sin— For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God Romans 3:23.

PENALTY: Sin's Consequence — For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord Romans 6:23.

PROVISION: God's Love —

But God commendeth His love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us Romans 5:8.

PERSONAL: Response of Faith — That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved Romans 10:9.

PARTICIPATION: Christian Commitment— I beseech you therefore, brethren by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God Romans 12:1, 2.

A LETTER OF PRAISE

Apostle Tammy called up and I have been telling that testimony about the five streams of income every chance I got. I really didn't consider it for me because I really wasn't looking for work or anything to do because I'm retired.

However, God caused me to consider a question I ran across in April: What are you expecting in life? Are you a "glass half empty" person or a "glass half full person?" I then said I'm a glass full of expectations, but it will never happen unless I try! And at that point I wanted to be that person with the five streams of income. I began to say, I get income from my job, I play piano at my church, I design programs for another church and banquets etc. Well to add to that, I can teach piano to children and I can write. Well that's my five!

The next day, the Lord led me to a neighborhood center, because it was so much in my spirit, that I was just drawn to see what the Lord could do. I asked them how much does it cost to rent space there, because I wanted to teach piano lessons. They told me, and I asked if they had keyboards. They said we have 8. Eight is the number of new beginnings! I went to look at them and found that the books and headphones were with the keyboards. At that point I was overwhelmed, because I could teach in a group setting. Then the man proceeded to tell me that I could be there on "Contract", meaning, the center would provide funds to pay me to teach piano to the children that attended the center. All that I would need to do is to present a "Contract Proposal" letting them know my intentions of what I would be teaching each week and how long. Also I still could teach my students separately by renting space there. Now look at God!!!

I also asked if they knew of any churches that would want to enhance their program designs, and they asked, Do you have a card? Mind you, I hadn't did anything. I said no, but I'll go home and make me some. On my way home, I stopped at a beauty salon, and asked if they needed business cards. She said make me a sample and show it to me. She also asked me to make an "Add" to go in a souvenir booklet with her picture in it. I did what she asked and she was so overwhelmed by the end result. God gives me creative designs!

This is what God did in making and designing of my business card. He gave the colors, the lettering, the name of my business, and the scripture all in one night. I'm sending you a sample.

I'm on my way as the Lord leads. God is increasing my five streams of income. I'm still doing things on the computer, started teaching piano to children in my home so I can build up my clientele before moving to the center, and will start the "Contract" later in the summer or fall; and was asked to speak at another church for their Vacation Bible School. God gave me the subject, "You Are More Than What You Can See"; (sub-title), "God Can Use a Miracle In You To Make Men Believe." This is all for His glory, because He Can Make It Happen! I'm just overjoyed at what I see.

I see, that this was not only for the young man; not only for me; but it's for anyone that wants to prove the Lord at His Word, because the Lord is doing a new thing. Also out of this, someone called and asked if I would give voice lessons. I said no, but my daughter is good at that. Another door opened, teaching my daughter to trust God. The example she sees in me stretches her to say "It Can Happen!"

Every time I step forward, the enemy tries to come in. After declaring what God was doing, on Monday, I got a pain in my body that prohibited my ability to walk; that went down my leg. It was a constant pain of inflamma-

YIELDED TO THE SPIRIT OF GOD!

*Written by Elsie Cain
Praise Assembly Apostolic Faith Ministries International Del City, Oklahoma*

In 1991 my son, Odes Cain III, left Houston, TX. for Guthrie Job Corps in Guthrie, Okla. and decided to make Oklahoma his home. I encouraged him to find a church and he did; it was Praise Assembly. In 1996, I began visiting Praise Assembly Full Gospel Ministries, in Oklahoma City, Pastors Fannie and William Wallace. During a Women of Faith Conference, the spirit of the Lord was so awesome I was on the floor weeping, as well as some of the others. The Lord spoke to me and said, "This is where you need to be." I didn't question Him, but asked, "Am I to join now at Pastor Fannie's feet?" He didn't answer. A few months later I asked, when do I move, still no answer. I patiently waited to hear God's instructions. I informed my family, friends, co-workers and my supervisor by giving a verbal notice of my pending resignation. They heard me say it all the time, that I would be leaving. I had been employed at the Houston Postal Service for about 17½ years and was buying a 2500sq ft home with 4 bedrooms and 2½ baths. I was willing to leave all that behind to follow God. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you" Matthew 6:33.

After visiting the church I felt a love and spiritual connection to the ministry that I wanted to be a part of. Ready to move but I was not going to get ahead of God, I had to wait for His instructions. In my waiting I began to prepare my heart and mind for whatever God had planned for me there. Jeremiah 29:11 "For I know the plans I have for you saith the Lord." I didn't want to leave my family, I liked my job and enjoyed my house but I realized that it wasn't about me, a big house or a good paying job. Those things were only temporal, and I choose to "walk by faith not by sight" 2Corinth.5:7. "What will it profit a man to gain this whole world and lose his soul?" Mk.8:36. God gave me an acronym for the word FAITH: First Acknowledge I Trust Him. I have to trust in the Lord with all my heart, lean not to my own understanding but in all my ways I will acknowledge Him and He will direct my path (Prov.3:5-6). You don't have to always know the what, where, or how—what will I do, where will I go, or how will I live. Abraham did it, and he didn't know the what, where, or how; but he knew the voice of God and because of his faith and obedience, he became the father of many nations. God is the author and finisher of my faith, He will not leave me nor forsake me, and He's my life, my joy and my strength. By faith I will go where God sends me.

While waiting patiently for God's instructions I continued to visit Praise Assembly, witnessing the demonstrative power and miracles manifested in the church. The church moved to another building and was renamed Praise Assembly Apostolic Faith Ministries International and Pastor Fannie is now Apostle. She preaches and lives the uncompromised Word with power and conviction. The powerful anointing during praise and worship releases healing and pull down strongholds.

Apostle knows who she is and whose she is, always demonstrating passion to pursue her God given purpose. That's the leader I chose to follow, as she follows Christ. In the middle of August God said to me "You need to be in Oklahoma City by Sept 1, 2002". I had been waiting 6 years.

I gave my supervisor a week notice, hugged and kissed my family, packed my car, left my house, and drove to Oklahoma on August 29th, 2002. By faith I expected God to lead and direct me; by faith I believe God would provide for me; and by faith I received the blessings God had waiting for me. To God be the Glory, He can do exceedingly, abundantly, above all that we ask or think.

I wanted to know my purpose; what was I created for; what did God want me to do? There was certainly a drawing anointing calling me to seek the answer. The time had come to pursue my destiny in the Kingdom of God and to be a living testimony of obedience in His Word. I transitioned for my purpose to be fulfilled, no more church as usual. This faith move even caused my daughter, Kawana Mukes, and her family to later relocate to Oklahoma City. Yes, they also now serve in the ministry. I remember when I started visiting Praise Assembly; I said 'I wish my children could have grown up in this ministry!' Well I can't turn back the hand of time but my 5 grandchildren are now living out that desire, thanks to the obedience of my son, Elder Odes. Praise God!!!

Transition means the act of changing from one form, style, state, place, condition etc... to another. The question is: What are you willing to do to find your purpose in life; change your mind set, separate from someone or will you relocate? I encourage you to hear God; be obedient to what He says; walk in faith, and trust Him in every situation. My soul desire is to please God in every area of my life and to make an effective impact on others. There's nothing more rewarding than being in the Will of God!

tion and I began to declare the Word of God over my body and just rest. By Sunday I could walk normally. That's why I began my letter with I overcome the world, the flesh, and the devil by the Word of my testimony and the blood of the Lamb. Thanks Apostle Fannie of Praise Assembly; Thanks Apostle Tammy; Thanks Apostle Cheryl; I was truly blessed and helped by the Word Of God. GLORIA JEAN WOODARD 6/17/05

To clarify this, is to see the image of every time you put something in your mouth, it leaks out, but it's leaking out the wrong things; it's coming out the wrong way. The things you say just doesn't come out the right way. It keeps leaking out what used to be; what's past; what hasn't happened; what ain't gon' happen.

The mouth has not had it's sealant of the Holy Spirit. I believe you need a refresher of God's Spirit that will keep it sealed with the right lubricant, the right oil; stay secure with the right affects and not cause scenes; and will smooth out the cracks that caused weakness.

God can repair that broken mouth to where you can't see any cracks. A mouth should speak truth about a situation because the Potter can put it back together again. It's not half done but perfectly and masterfully done. God can repair that mouth to where you can't see any cracks; to where it's just like new; no more brokenness but whole again. With cracks you tend to get bitter; you can't even share Good News with cracks because there is no anointing upon the words. You would only share bad news. I want to be like the woman at the well with a freshness in my mouth after meeting the Lord. God wants an overflow in my mouth, that flows with the seal of the power of the Holy Spirit. The flow then can overflow to serve.

Stick with what you know!

It still works! No matter where you go or what has entered your life, you have to move from doom and gloom to the position God wants you in. You have to move to His Word. You have to move to thankfulness. You have to move to a position of praise even if you don't feel like praising. God is always with you, therefore when you speak, speak from your inner man and your flesh will die. John the Baptist said, I must decrease so He will increase.

Now, there is no more "a broken mouth" that speaks, but a whole mouth filled with powerful Anointed Words of God to repair another broken mouth. It's a domino affect. What you allow to affect you, affects others, hopefully in a good way. So stick with what you know, the Word of God that heals, sets free, delivers, and repairs. That Word that comes forth will be able to mend a broken and damaged heart. You can only do that when a broken mouth is placed in the Potter's Hand who finishes and smoothes that broken mouth with His Holy Spirit's power to dissolve every open avenue of a crack. Be blessed with fruitful speech!

God Bless!

SHINGLES (Herpes Zoster)

Shingles is an infection caused by the same virus that causes Chickenpox.

This virus is called Varicella Zoster. You can't develop Shingles unless you have had a previous infection of Chickenpox (usually as a child). Shingles is also called Herpes Zoster. This infection is most common in people over 50 years old, but young people can have it as well.

OCCURRENCE OF SHINGLES

If you have had Chickenpox, you are at risk for later developing Shingles. After you recover from the Chickenpox, the virus stays in your body. It moves to the roots of your nerve cells near the Spinal cord and become inactive. Later, if the virus becomes active again, Shingles is the name it's given.

A weakened Immune System seems to allow reactivation of the virus. It can also happen as a complication of Cancer, Aids, Chronic use of steroid drugs, injury to skin, sunburn, and emotional stress.

SYMPTOMS OF SHINGLES

- Burning, sharp pain, tingling, or numbness in your skin on one side of your body or face.
- A common site is the back or upper abdomen.
- Itching, aching, fever, chills, headache, and upset stomach.

One to 14 days after you start feeling pain, you will notice a rash of small blisters or reddened skin. Within a few days after they appear, the blisters will turn yellow, then dry and crust over. Over the next 2 weeks the crusts drop and the skin continues to heal. In some cases the pain can last for weeks, months, or years after the rash heals. This is called Postherpetic Neuralgia (Nerve damage). Shingles are not contagious, however, if you have never had Chickenpox, you may get Chickenpox from close contact with someone who has Shingles because the blisters contain the Chickenpox virus. If you have Shingles, make sure that anyone who has not had Chickenpox or the Chickenpox shot does not come in contact with your blisters until the blisters are completely dry (especially children).

DIAGNOSIS AND TREATMENT

See your Healthcare Provider. The diagnosis is usually obvious from the appearance of the skin and lab tests that look for the virus in the fluid from a blister.

- Antiviral medicines are given such as Acyclovir or Corticosteroids.
- Pain medicines may also be prescribed.
- Antibacterial salves or lotions to help prevent bacterial infection of the blisters.
- Rest in bed during the early stages if you have a fever.
- Put cool moist washcloths on the rash and try not to let clothing rub against the rash.

PREVENTION OF SHINGLES

If you have never had

Health Awareness
Wellness For Life
From The Kelsey Korner

Chickenpox, you can get a shot to help prevent infection with the Chickenpox virus.

If you have had Chickenpox, a vaccine called Zostavax is available for people 60 years of age and older. The vaccine can help or lessen the symptoms of Shingles. It can't be used to treat Shingles once you have it.

The rash from Shingles will heal in one to three weeks; the pain will usually go away 3 to 5 weeks. You can protect your Immune System and lessen your chances of getting Shingles by trying to keep stress under control by exercising regularly and eating a healthy diet.

"Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved, for thou art my praise."

Jeremiah 17:14

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, thank You for being so merciful! We know we don't deserve it but it's Your kindness and compassion that keeps us going through every circumstance, knowing that we came through because of You! I thank You for the good times and the bad times because You are still in it with us. You didn't leave us when we messed up; You didn't forsake us when we didn't listen to You. But

You are constantly preparing us to be a strong people of God; a mighty army; a people that's more than conquerors. Lord as we acknowledge You in all that we undertake, may Your leadership and wisdom flow through us, that when we make a wrong turn, You're able to turn us around into a right turn! Hallelujah!

Lord keep that burning desire in our hearts to please You. It's all about You lest we forget. The lost need what we have—the Good News! May we ache to tell others about You; may we not rest until we have called and proclaimed Your Name to that one You send us to!

Touch the Atheist; the Sick and Lame; the Fornicator; the Adulterer; the Drug Addict; the Preacher; the Lay Person; the Child growing up with no father or mother and going down the wrong path; the Procrastinators; and whom-ever You place upon our hearts that's ready for Your drawing touch.

Father, in Jesus' Name, I bind that lying spirit that speaks lies to them. I tell Satan to take his hands off of those that are Yours and I call them strong, holy, fierce, and courageous, in Jesus' Name. May their mind be clear enough to make a conscious decision to say "Yes" to You in Jesus' Name! Lord Your Will be done on earth as it is in heaven. You are the Author and Finisher of our faith! I speak that the faithful will pray! In Jesus' Name,
Amen!

THERE ARE 32 BOOKS OF THE BIBLE IN THIS PARAGRAPH This is a most remarkable puzzle. It was found by a gentleman in an airplane seat pocket on a flight from Los Angeles to Honolulu, keeping him occupied for hours. He enjoyed it so much he passed it on to some friends. One friend from Illinois worked on this while fishing from his john boat. Another friend studied it while playing the banjo. Elaine Taylor, a columnist friend, was so intrigued by it she mentioned it in her weekly newspaper column. Another friend judges the job of solving the puzzle so involving, she brews a cup of tea to help her nerves. There will be some names that are really easy to spot. That's a fact. Some people, however, will soon find themselves in a jam, especially since the book names are not necessarily capitalized. Truthfully, from answers we get, we are forced to admit it usually takes a minister or scholar to see some of them at the worst. "But don't fret," Pastor Jonah told me. "A minister has to be a real pro. Verbs, nouns and pronouns are our specialty." Research has shown that something in our genes is responsible for the difficulty we have in seeing the books in this paragraph. During a recent fund raising event, which featured this puzzle, the Alpha Delta Phi lemonade booth set a new sales record. The local paper, The Chronicle, surveyed over two hundred patrons who reported that this puzzle was one of the most difficult they had ever seen. As Daniel Hummana humbly puts it, "the books are all right there in plain view - - hidden from sight." Those able to find all of them will hear great lamentations from those who have to be shown. One revelation that may help is that books like Timothy and Samuel may occur without their numbers. Also, keep in mind, that punctuation and spaces in the middle are normal. A chipper attitude will help you compete really well against those who claim to know the answers. Remember, there is no need for a mad exodus, there really are thirty - two books of the bible lurking somewhere in this paragraph waiting to be found.

1. Amos; 2. Mark; 3. Luke; 4. John; 5. Joel; 6. Judges; 7. Job; 8. Hebrews; 9. Esther; 10. Acts; 11. James; 12. Ruth; 13. Romans; 14. Titus; 15. Matthews; 16. Jonah; 17. Proverbs; 18. Genesis; 19. Philemon; 20. Chronicles; 21. Daniel; 22. na hum; 23. Hosea; 24. Lamentations; 25. Revelation; 26. Timothy; 27. Samuel; 28. Numbers; 29. mal. A chi; 30. Peter; 31. Exodus; 32. Kings.

POWER IN THE WORD MINISTRY

For the Word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Hebrews 4:12.

MY MISSION: Reach and encourage others in letting you know that God is able to do the impossible.

MY VISION: Articles to be written in a Book to inspire others.

IT CAN HAPPEN

How much more shall your Father which is in heaven, give good things to them that ask him? Matthew 7:11b

MY MISSION: Use the God-given gift for His glory!

MY VISION: Teach others to reach for those God-given gifts in them!

“The key to change... is to let go of fear.”
