

POWER IN THE WORD MINISTRY P. J. T. W. M.

EDITOR'S WORDS BY GLORIA JEAN WOODARD

"For A Generation To Come" Joel 1:3 Tell ye your children of it, and [let] your children [tell] their children, and their children another generation.

What have we been called to pass on? We are always studying about families. We have our blood family and we have our spiritual family. We know how important salvation is to both families. Our spiritual family, who we'll call our church family, is accounted as very important because when there is Christian growth we become and look more and more like God's children.

In our earthly family, we take on limited knowledge, altered perceptions, wrong convictions, get-by skills, old repetitive characters, and even how to love or not love one another. Our actions are so flawed.

One important

"with in our Sunday School lesson is Abraham. God is telling Abraham, "I'm going to give you some land, I'm going to make you the father of a great nation, and I'm going to bless the whole world through you."

God says, through you. Now Abraham didn't know how all this was going to work out, but he didn't have to. All he had to do was believe it.

God's blessings always exceed our expectation and it's always progressive. I encourage you that when you have the KNOWLEDGE

Knowledge, the Holy Spirit will give the right understanding.

Growth starts on the inside and abounds to the outside. Your place in the family is to know what the promises of pass them on to the generation to come, and they are 'Now'. All the Israelites didn't come into the Promised Land. It was a new generation that came.

There is a promise inside of you that God has given you whether big or small.

In prayer did God promise you in His word, your whole house would be saved, but you don't see it now, but you're still waiting; and you're still standing on the word of God. Acts 16:31 (... Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house); or 1John 5:10a (He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself)? Keep that witness in your spirit and begin to declare it, confess it, speak it out, don't wavier, just believe God.

You see when God told Abraham the promise, in Gen. 15:6 it says... he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.

Special points of interest:

- © God' blessings always exceed our expectation and it's always progressive.
- Skeep a witness in your hear that God is well able.
- Declare, confess those promises you don't see but God said it and that settles it, over your children.
- Christ is the Head and we move in the direction of where the head leads.

lieved). Num. 14:8-9, If the Lord delight in us, then He will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which flows with milk and honey. 9Only rebel not ye against the Lord; neither fear ye the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defense is departed from them, and the Lord is with us: fear them not.

Believe me, after hearing a promise, there is going to be opposition. However, you have to have the right Perspec-tive, meaning my family may PERSPECTIVE not act like I want them to, or how they need to, or as a matter-offact even others you encounter may not act like you want them or need them to act, but this is where I'm suppose to pray for them, love them unconditionally, and go through hard times with them.

Now this is not always going to be easy but in the book of James, count it all joy when you go through testing and trials. Our perspective should be that if God wakes us up to a brand new day, He is well able to fulfill all our family's needs without us controlling, manipulating, or transposing an ending, like Sarah tried. You know how some families are! They want to be God. So glad that Christ is the 'Head'. Pass that on!

Every day God sends us opportunities for spiritual growth disguised as problems. As a church family we will survive by our Convictions.

Some families get by, but we get through. There is another side, another way, another plan which is always God's very best way. Look at some scriptures that will keep you going.

Pass these on to the coming generation:

- 1Corth. 12:27 I am a member of Christ's body
- Phil. 1:6 I am confident that God will complete the good work He started in me.
- 2Tim.1:7 I have not been given a spirit of fear but of power, love, and a sound mind.
- 2Corth. 4:18 I am not moved by what I see because it is temporary.
- 1Jn. 5:14-15 I am confident that He hears me and my desired petition is answered.
- Lk. 23:34 My forgiveness always leads to the foot of the cross.

God uses all your natural Skills, meaning talents, abilities, and flair to give Him glory. You weren't given those abilities to keep to yourself. You weren't given the flair, instinct, knack to do something nobody has perceived for nothing. Unfortunately, everybody is not ready for what God gives you. We all have to work hand in hand along with the leading power of the Holy Spirit. Learn the movement of the Spirit and not flesh. We've seen God wanting the people to move out but they reject God's timing; The Israelites were to go into the Promise Land but rejected God's timing. Don't worry, hold on. It took a whole generation to die out before another could be used. Don't allow the enemy to stop you from seeing what God wants. Nothing is really done right for God's kingdom unless led by the Spirit of God. Pray that it's His Spirit leading and not old habits. Ministry unto God comes from the heart not from habits.

The Spirit builds our Character. The place you're at all the time will be your training ground (meaning home, school, job, or church). Be built up and rooted in Christ Jesus.

(Colo. 3:23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men) couragement to others. You as the body of Christ will have to have a holy character to walk where He wants you to go and who He wants you to touch. We don't live for ourselves but for God. He has the last say in all our lives.

Knowledge with the right understanding, having the right Perspective to act on, true Convictions for survival, Skills to give back, and Character that builds will bring us together to enable us Prayer (Praying the scriptures from January thru May):

Thank you Lord that when I ASK, it shall be given me because I BE-LIEVE on You, and I and my house are saved, so I CAST every care on You for You care for me. As I DRAW nigh You and You draw nigh me, I will ENTER into Your gates with thanksgiving and into Your courts with praise.

Knowing You GOD, SO LOVED the world that You gave Your only Begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in You shall not perish, but have everlasting life.

Whatever I GIVE, it shall be given unto me, good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, shall men give into my bosom.

HONORING my mother and father is my fist commandment with promise. You are I AM, Alpha and Omega, beginning and end, Is, Was, and Is to come; JEHOVAH, my Strength, my Song, and Salvation.

I KNOW that all things work together for my good, to them that love You and are that are called according to Your purpose; also to those that LOVE their enemies, and to do good to them which hate me, MAKING a joyful noise unto You, knowing that NO weapon formed against me shall prosper, and every tongue that rise against me in judgment shall be condemned, for this is the heritage of the servants of the Lord. Thank you Lord that You always show me how to OBEY my parents in the Lord for this is right.

I will PRAISE the Lord. I will give thanks to You O Lord, for You are good and Your mercy endureth for ever, so I will not QUENCH Your Spirit but will RECEIVE The Holy Ghost in every aspect of my life! Praise be to God! Amen!

to share with a generation to come and will keep building the family, not to fail but to advance.

Lastly our LOVE walk for and unto God stirs all of the above in the mix.

> Heb. 11:17By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, 180f whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called: 19Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure. 20By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. 21By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. 22By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

Another generation knowledge, perspective, convictions, skills, character, and love was being built on the true unmovable foundation that God is well able. Tell ye your children on it, and [let] your children [tell] their children, and their children another generation.

Keep offering your life to God. Keep offering your chil- ☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆ dren and children's children lives to God. Don't give up because the battle has been fought and the victory has been won through Christ Jesus' blood on the cross and His ascension to Heaven. Pass this along to the generation to come and they are NOW!
